

RECEPTION TENDERED MISS ELLEN GLASGOW

Woman's Club Will Honor Distinguished Author This Afternoon.

SIGNAL CORPS GIVES DANCE

Large Entertainment to Be Held at Richmond Grays' Armory To-Night in Honor of Second Anniversary of New Military Organization.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson Hall, who came to Richmond to attend the Adamson-Richardson wedding, left Saturday for their home in New York City. Mrs. Hall has been spending some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Adamson, at the Westfield, and a number of interesting functions were incident to her visit.

At the Woman's Club a reception will be tendered Miss Ellen Glasgow this afternoon in honor of her return to Richmond to make her home. Many prominent guests have been invited to meet Miss Glasgow at the club from 3 to 6:30 o'clock.

Another large function of this evening is the entertainment given at the Gray's Armory, corner of Seventh and Marshall Streets, by the Richmond Signal Corps in honor of its second anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Royall has returned to Richmond, after an absence of five months, and will occupy her home, 1129 East Avenue, until some time after Christmas. Miss Emily Rutherford Royall is returning to Richmond next week, and will be with her mother until later in the winter. Miss Royall has been a recent guest of Mrs. Robert Heman Walker, formerly Miss Kate Hedges, of Richmond, and Mrs. L. F. Mims at their country estates outside Philadelphia.

Miss Moses Weds in New York. Cards have been issued announcing the marriage of Miss Isoline M. Moses, Rev. David Klein, the ceremony being taken place at the home of the bride's brother, Harry Morton Moses, in New York City, on Thursday, November 11. They will be at home in Sumner S. C., after December 1. The bride is prominently known in Richmond, having been president of the Hebrew Social Association.

Approaching Marriage. Mrs. M. F. Yowell, of Rappahannock county, announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Edna Earle, Samuel F. Padgett, of this city. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday, November 24, in Washington, D. C.

Wedding. In celebration of a large and representative assemblage John T. Watson, Jr., of Tampa, Fla., and Miss Mary Hicks Boissieu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Henry Boissieu, were united in marriage at 9 o'clock Thursday night in the First Presbyterian church. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Boissieu residence on Paxton Street.

At the wedding, Rev. William Latrod, D. D., officiated. The attendants included Miss Nannie Sudduth, of West Virginia, first bridesmaid; R. L. Brell, Jr., groomsmen; Miss May Jackson, of New Jersey, bridesmaid; John E. Overbey, Mrs. Boissieu, of New Jersey, sister of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Willie Watson, of Danville, sister of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Watson, of Danville, as ushers.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tinsley, of 1914 West Marshall Street, celebrated the fourth anniversary of their wedding at their home last Monday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Ramsey, Mrs. R. E. Tinsley, Mr. and Mrs. MacLuskey, Mrs. R. J. Tinsley, Miss L. Haleck, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Jackson, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Brown, and Mrs. George H. Edelblut, Andrew Edelblut, Mrs. Katherine Edelblut, Mrs. Gregory and others.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will hold its annual thank offering social this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph E. Sarg, 2015 Monument Avenue. After a short business session the members and guests will enjoy a social hour. A delightful program will be rendered by the following artists: Mrs. Robert S. Judging, contralto; Miss Mary Simpson, soprano; Mrs. J. F. Gersinger, contralto; Samuel Cowardin, violinist; Miss Alice Hechler, reader; Mrs. M. H. Thompson, Mrs. S. P. Cowardin, accompanists. Mrs. Fred Powell and Mrs. J. E. Tinsley will have charge of the dining room, and Mrs. Sarg and the officers of the circle will receive.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN. Miss May Beverly Friend, of Wilmington, N. C., is a guest of Mrs. Andrew Jackson Gray, Jr., at the Chesapeake Hotel.

Mrs. H. A. McCurdy, of this city, spent the week-end at the Pochontas Cottage, Virginia Beach.

Mrs. E. D. L. Taylor has arrived in Richmond for the winter, and is with Mrs. R. T. Hunter, at 215 East Franklin Street.

Mrs. A. C. Kuntler and her two small sons, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Page in Orange for several weeks, have returned to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Walker, of Richmond, are among the recent arrivals at Virginia Beach.

Miss Louise Crank, of Louisiana, has been spending several days in Richmond as the guest of Miss Wheelwright.

Mrs. Thomas Bolling is a guest of Mrs. Egbert G. Leigh, Jr., at Rapidan. Miss Carla App and Miss Mary Williams have been the recent guests of Mrs. Claude James Allard on Floyd venue.

Misses Elizabeth and Anne Ingram are spending the week-end in Ashland with Miss Lyle Gary.

Wallace C. Saunders, of 1902 Grove avenue, has been ill at St. Elizabeth's Hospital here, is now improving.

Miss Sallie Gascoigne, of Orange, arrived in Richmond last week to be the guest of relatives for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, of this city, are stopping at the Waverly Cottage, Virginia Beach.

Mrs. James Hill has returned to Orange, after spending several days with relatives and friends in this city.

W. C. H. Maddox, of Richmond, has returned from a brief stay in Louisiana county.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS. There will be an important session of the Richmond Chapter of the Holiness Association to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian Association on Fifth Street. This is the first of the two meetings which will be held by the chapter here this season, and a charming program has been arranged. The session is a social one, and every former student of Hollins College is cordially invited to attend.

The Helping Circle of King's Daughters will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Mercer Hall, 2314 East Broad Street. A full attendance is desired, and members are asked to note the change of date for the meeting, for this session only.

The week of prayer services held by the Woman's Missionary Society of Park Place Church culminated in a campaign for new members. This afternoon at 4 o'clock, a reception to these new members will be given in the lecture room of the church.

AMUSEMENTS

About the Theaters.

Frequenters of the Academy of Music will have to content themselves with the perfume left by "High Jinks" until next week, when two "big" shows will practically split the week-end. "Everywoman" and "The Tentmaker." The former has appeared here twice, both times playing to phenomenal business, but Guy Bates Post will be seen here for the first time in that great spectacle-drama built about the life of the Persian poet, Omar Khayyam.

Meanwhile, the stock companies, the vaudeville house and the movies will provide varied entertainment. "Her Husband's Wife," first presented by Henry Miller, assisted by Laura Hope Crews, has been selected by Manager Grayson as the vehicle for the further exploitation of Dorothy Mortimer and her associates at the Bijou. Though the title is vaguely suggestive of that other fearful piece, "The Woman He Married," the plays are totally dissimilar. "Her Husband's Wife" is a modern and bright comedy, which should be particularly well adapted to the style of Miss Mortimer.

Manager DeWitt Newing, too, has reformed, so to speak, since he is following "Inside the Lines," which the Grayson Scott Company offered at the Strand last week, with a real play, "Polly of the Circus." Though this beautiful little comedy-drama has been seen in Richmond a number of times, it has never been done by a stock company, nor has it been presented here for several seasons. Miss Scott should make a very charming Polly, while Mr. Warner will certainly play opposite her, in the part of the minister.

Most of the Lyric's acts for the first part of the week look so attractive on paper that it is somewhat hard to name the billposters. However, McKay and Ardine have the biggest amount of space in the Sunday ad, so they must be the headline act. They will present "On Broadway," which is described as the latest and best variety offering. Next, in point of type and space, come the Six Little Songbirds, a tabloid musical comedy offering, sung and danced by an all-juvenile cast. Others are the De Mott comedy, "That's the Way the Name was Spelled," Hyman Adler and company, in "Solomon's Bargain," and the Four Jansleys, Risley and ladder workers.

For the first half of the week the Little Theater's Paramount picture feature will be an adaptation of Henry Arthur Jones' drama, "The Masqueraders," in which the very lovely Hazel Dawn is featured. Hazel Dawn made her first big hit in "The Pink Lady," since which time she has steadily progressed. Next time she is a recognized screen favorite. You just can't keep a real actress down.

That excellent actor, Edward Jose, will be the Colonel's screen star to-day and to-morrow in "Silver Threads Among the Gold," a photoplay built up or extracted from the famous old song of the same name. Mr. Jose, in his singing days, made much of the little song, and now it is likely that he will get everything possible out of the part assigned him in the picture.

Theda Bara, last referred to as "The Silent Sorceress of the Single Stag," whatever that means—or "The Satanic Sorceress of the Silent Stag"—whatever that means, too, also, or either—will be the main card at the to-day and to-morrow in the Fox photoplay, "Sin." Wow!

At the Superior to-day and to-morrow, Miss Pike will be seen as Becky Sharp in the Edison picture of the same name. This, doubtless, will be well worth seeing.

The New Theater offers a daily change of program, including short drama and comedies.

NEWS OF ASHLAND

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHLAND, VA., November 14.—The Hanover Chapter, U. D. C., will hold its regular historical meeting at the parish house on November 18 at 3 P. M. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. M. E. Luck was elected to represent the Methodist society of the Ashland Baptist Church in the convention.

PETERSBURG MINISTERS READY FOR CONFERENCE

Only One Change in Pulpit Likely to Be Made, Dr. Spooner Having Served Out Time.

LARGE NUMBER WILL ATTEND

King's Daughters Elect Officers. Negro Dies as Result of Gunshot Wound Received in Quarrel—Two Violent Deaths at Hopewell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PETERSBURG, VA., November 14.—The Methodist ministers of this city are ready for the annual conference, which will meet in Cumberland Street Church, in Norfolk, on Wednesday morning. Most of the pastors, lay delegates and members of the conference boards of the district will go down to Norfolk on Tuesday. There may be several changes in the pastorates in the district, but necessarily only one in Petersburg. The term of Rev. George H. Spooner, of Market Street Church, expires by limitation and he will be sent to another station. Dr. Spooner has served his church and people most faithfully and satisfactorily, and the congregation and community regret his departure.

King's Daughters Elect.

At the recent meeting of King's Daughters, of Petersburg, officers for the year were elected as follows: leader, Mrs. T. F. Heath; vice-leader, Mrs. E. G. Scott; treasurer, Miss E. M. Gainsbury; secretary, Miss Harriet Roper; associate secretary, Mrs. Robert Young; corresponding secretary, Miss M. J. Camp; associate, Mrs. T. A. Field. The circle's nurse, Miss Gainsbury, reported fifteen patients on her list, and as having made ninety-five visits during the past month.

Died of Blood Poisoning.

Doctor Jackson, colored, of Farmville, died in the Petersburg Hospital this morning of blood poisoning, resulting from gunshot wounds received last Sunday. Jackson was a member of the railroad gang encamped near Southernland in Dinwiddie. He got into a dispute with another member of the force and was shot by the latter. Jackson's knee was badly fractured by the ball. An inquest will be held.

Inquests to Be Held.

Coroner Leigh and a jury last night viewed the bodies of two men lying dead at Morris & Son's morgue, and adjourned until to-morrow night to hold inquests on them. Both men had met death by violence at Hopewell, James Paisley, an Italian, was fatally crushed between cars; Neil Marron, colored, was shot by another negro, who has not been arrested.

Increase in Arrests.

The increase in arrests in Petersburg in recent months, due to influx of new population, has been very marked. During the first ten months of 1914 there were 213 arrests, and the sum of $2,563 was paid in fines in the Police Court. During the first ten months of this year the number of arrests was 476, and the amount paid in fines was $5,267, and the present month promises to establish a record in both respects.

News Notes of Interest.

Saturday was pay day at the Du Pont plant, the checks covering a period of three weeks' salaries and wages. A large amount of money was spent in Petersburg, the retail business being very brisk. A section of the city being kept open until midnight. The crowd in town was very large. The police were kept busy handling the situation, and on Saturday to-day made over 100 arrests, including several for pocket-picking and robbery.

William Hayden, negro, convicted of the charge of murder at the present term of the Hulings Court, was taken to the penitentiary on Saturday to serve a sentence of eighteen years. Hayden killed John Flippen at a singing bee, at which each accused the other of false singing.

TAKES HIS OWN LIFE WHILE ON BRIDAL TRIP

W. H. Gooch, of Clarksville, Va., Shoots Himself on Train Returning From San Francisco.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEXINGTON, N. C., November 14.—A telegram was received here to-day announcing that W. H. Gooch, reputed to be a wealthy citizen of Clarksville, Va., had shot and killed himself this morning at Weimar, near Dallas, Tex.

Gooch married Miss Margaret Radcliffe of this city, about a month ago, and left on a bridal trip to San Francisco fair. It was while returning and on the train that he shot himself. Mr. Gooch was about fifty years of age, and his bride was a beautiful young woman.

To-day was the young bride's birthday, and Mr. Gooch is said to have intended to have a surprise. He is said to have a daughter by a former marriage, in Richmond.

Forest Fires in Blue Ridge.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., November 14.—Forest fires are reported to have been raging in sections of the Blue Ridge in Amherst and Bedford Counties during the past week. The mountains are covered with dead leaves, which make the fire burn fiercely for a time.

PRIEST'S BODY FOUND FLOATING IN RIVER

Illness and Loss of His Pious in War Believed to Have Poyed on Father Favard's Mind.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., November 14.—After a search of nine days by the police of Norfolk and other cities, the body of Father Benoit F. Favard was found floating in the Elizabeth River, by Captain C. E. Thurston, keeper of the Craney Island Quarantine Station, this morning about 9 o'clock. Decomposition had set in, and the body had every appearance of having been in the water for more than a week. There were no marks of violence, and the priest's gold watch and $10 in money were found in his pockets.

Father Favard, who was rector of St. John's colored Catholic parish here, had been in ill health for several weeks. He was a native of France, about thirty years old, and the great loss of life among his people in the European war had preyed on his mind considerably. Worried over the war, his illness are believed to have unbalanced his mind.

He is thought to have wandered to the water front and thrown himself overboard in a fit of despair, having fallen accidentally. The latter theory is generally accepted.

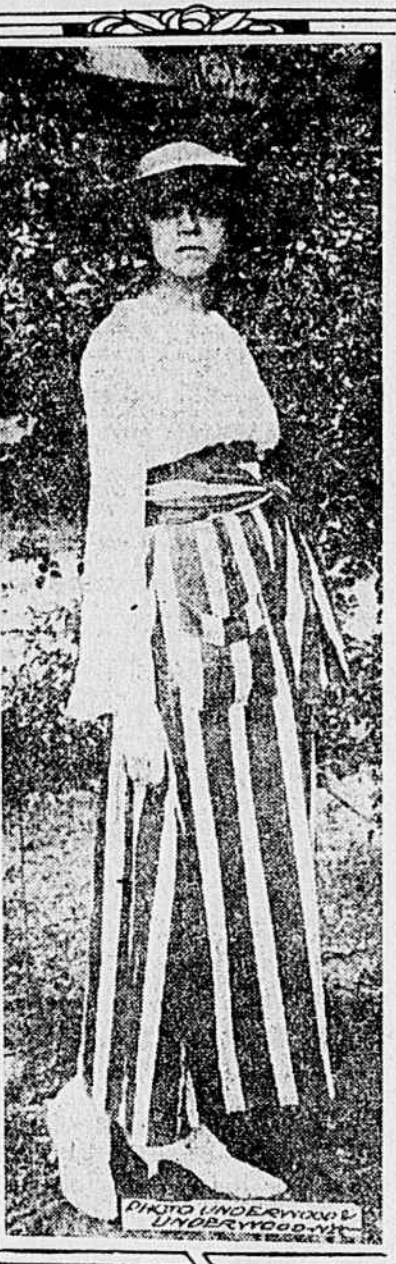

The last seen of the priest alive was when he left St. Joseph's colored school on the morning of November 6, presumably to go to the rectory next door.

Mass for Father Favard will be held in St. Joseph's Church this morning, and private interment will be made in St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery.

Judge Turner Indorsed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, D. C., November 14.—Members of the bar of Rappahannock County met on Friday and adopted resolutions indorsing Judge Edward S. Turner, Jr., of Fauquier County, who presides over the Circuit Court for the Twenty-fourth Circuit, for the seat on the State Supreme Court bench to be made vacant by the retirement of Judge James Keith.

November Bride

Miss Ellen Yullie, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Yullie, whose wedding to William J. Sturges, a son of Rev. Joseph H. Sturges, of Virginia, will take place on Wednesday, November 17, in St. Mary's Church, Scarborough, N. Y.

Miss Yullie will be attended by Mrs. A. J. Drexel Hiddle, Jr., as matron of honor, and her sister, Miss Melissa Yullie, as maid of honor. The Misses Nancy and Burke Yullie will act as flower girls. Ancie Buchanan Duke will serve as Mr. Sturges' best man. Bishop Joseph B. Chesbro, of North Carolina, will officiate at the ceremony. It will be followed by a large reception at the Sleepy Hollow Country Club.

MAYOR AINSIE PRAISES SAVANNAH HOSPITALITY

Especially Impressed With Address of Secretary of Commerce Redfield. 14 Mayors Hold Conference.

Mayor Ainsie yesterday joined the other Richmond deeper waterway pilgrims in praising the brand of hospitality that is manufactured in Savannah. Virginia hospitality is traditional. Therefore, when a Virginian is touched by the entertainment in a far country, said far country must have a hospitable trick of its own.

"In the matter of the prominence of many delegates in national affairs, and in the quality of the addresses delivered, the Savannah convention was the most remarkable of any that I have attended," said the Mayor. He was particularly impressed by the address of Secretary of Commerce Redfield.

Seventeen city mayors attended the convention as delegates. The executives held a meeting of their own Thursday night, each making a short informal talk.
